

November 11, 2010

Pacific Rim Capital receives Global Supplier Excellence Award Milwaukee, WI.

Pacific Rim Capital (PRC) received a Global Supplier Excellence Recognition Award from Johnson Controls for its work across North America. At a ceremony in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to mark its 125th anniversary and proud history of achievement, Johnson Controls recognized their best suppliers in several categories. PRC received its award in the category of Global Growth. Pacific Rim Capital has been servicing Johnson Controls since 1999. This award highlighted PRC as a top service provider in the fork truck leasing industry by recognizing the company for its exceptional performance in quality of service, innovation and cost reduction.

Founded in 1990, Pacific Rim Capital is a global financial services company that provides equipment leasing and asset management services to the Fortune 500. PRC maintains a leadership position in material handling equipment leasing. For more information, visit <http://www.pacificrimcapital.com>.

